Global Talent Shortages Reach 16-Year-High

Three in four employers globally report difficulty finding the talent they need in 2022, strengthening +6 percentage points year over year and double the difficulty in 2010 (31%).

Global Talent Shortages (2010–2022)

Employees have been quitting in record numbers

Wages for deskless workers up 7% to 10%

Workforce has become the paramount challenge for CEOs

Employees who work in a high fairness environment have

26% higher performance

27% lower chance of quitting

of employees (and 70% of Gen Z employees) would consider leaving their current job if they had an opportunity with more pay transparency

We've had candidates say 'I was deciding between you and another firm and when I heard about your stance on pay equity I decided to join you.'

Why is Pay Equity Important?

Diversity and inclusion is embedded in QBE's DNA, our culture and strategic initiatives.

QBE is internally and externally transparent regarding our focus on pay equity.

- Our customers and potential employees are asking what we are doing in this area and with movements like Black Lives Matter (BLM) and #MeToo making international headlines makes our actions even more important.
- Explosion of new pay equity laws globally. More legislation every day beyond gender to include race/ethnicity and other protected characteristics continue to crop up to ensure fair pay for more workers.
- More companies are voluntarily reporting their pay equity and ethnicity data. In addition, some countries are required to publish gender reporting (UK, France, Australia).

Pay Equity Journey at QBE

Since 2016, we have assessed the pay equity gap based on the key drivers of pay. The following documents our approach over the past few years:

Pay Equity Journey at Asana

Asana's pay equity journey has focused on continuous improvement and ensuring transparency and employee understanding of results.

Top of Mind for Asana Today re: our Pay Equity Efforts

- Validating our methodology in response to declines in software industry stock market multiples
- Ensuring our pay equity approach and communication strategy align with our plans to address new transparency laws
- Forecasting the impact of our early pipeline / apprenticeship programs on our raw pay gap, and ensuring these programs deliver real equity gains over time
 - Monitoring equity across the employee lifecycle
- \checkmark
- Dealing with global complexity, including limits around collecting / processing data
- Recalibrating representation goals and efforts in light of a moderation of our headcount growth

Now let's hear what companies are doing
